

Buildings

Design & Consultancy Services for the HQ of Supreme Court, Afghanistan

Client Supreme Court of Islamic Republic of Afghanistan

Work Period 04.12.2010 - 30.11.2013

Services provided Assessment and preliminary design
Detailed technical documentation and specifications
Construction supervision and defects liability period

Technical Details The project consists of consultancy services for preparation of preliminary designs and detailed technical documentation and specifications plus construction supervision & defects liability period for construction of the new building for the Headquarters of the Supreme Court which is built on a site of 36 hectares at Darul Aman in Kabul.

The Headquarters of the Supreme Court consists of two blocks; 1st block is the main building which includes Chief Justice, Justice Departments, Courts and other managerial departments and 2nd block is the support building which includes common spaces and supporting facilities.

The project is financed by IBRD under World Bank. The consultancy services are held by Optim (60%) and Abad (40%) JV.

Phase I (assessment and preliminary design) and Phase II (detailed technical documentation and specifications) include the following items; mobilization, data collection, concept design, preliminary design, final design and system/detail drawings, preparation of detailed BOQ's and specifications, completion of technical tender documents, derivation of appropriate form of bid and contract conditions, tender advertisement for construction works, bid opening for construction works, analysis & evaluation of proposals for construction works and award of contract.

