

Transportation Infrastructure

Preparation of Technical Specification for Railway Systems

Client	General Directorate of Railway Regulation
Work Period	14.10.2014 - 29.12.2015
Services	Consultancy services for the preparation of the specs to be applied in country scale in scope of determination for “minimum requirements for the limitations and conditions regarding the safety of railway infrastructure and the usage of the tractive and trailing stock” and “minimum requirements for the qualifications regarding freight and passenger stations and similar buildings used in railway transportation activities” towards healthy improvement and standardisation of conventional, fast-track and high-speed rail systems under coverage of the service field of General Directorate of Railway Regulation
Technical Details	Determination of the minimum requirements for the safety criterion regarding conventional, fast-track and high-speed railway infrastructure and the usage of tractive and trailing stock under service scope of the Client considering the international and national standards, regulations and specs related with design/construction/installation/maintenance used within frame of the legislation applied in Turkey Determination of the minimum requirements for the qualifications of freight and passenger stations and similar buildings under service scope of the Client considering the the international and national standards, regulations and specs related with design / construction / installation / maintenance used within frame of the legislation applied in Turkey Determination of the methods and principles concerning the application of the minimum requirements of safety criterion and qualifications mentioned above

